

Tractor and Machinery Association

21 May 2018

Whilst the major focus of this Project appears to be centered around passenger vehicles in urban areas, as the peak body representing Agricultural Equipment in Australia we wish to raise awareness that we will soon see Autonomous Tractors operating on Australian Farms.

As a result , we would very much like to see the conversation expanded to include such vehicles, likely to be operating in regional areas across the country..;